John Withers, Executor vs. Chas. A. Ware -in debt-it was considered that the defendant recover of the plaintiff his cost in his behalf expended.

Wm. G. Cazenove vs. Portner & Reckerin ejectment-a special verdict was taken in this case, and argument left open for some future day of the term.

Court adjourned till ten o'clock to-day.

MR. BALDWIN'S LECTURE, last night, at Liberty Hall, was listened to with great pleasure by a highly appreciative audience, who testified their approbation in a way suitable to such an audience. Mr. Baldwin is a genial satirist, if we may use such a term, and quietly applies the proper ridicule to the vices, follies, and weaknesses of mankind. "No levelled malice infects one comma," of the course he holds, while he raises the laugh at the "current imperfections of the day." The subject of the lecture was, "war considered as one of the fine arts"-It was handled artistically, with much occasional humor-some satire, and passages of real eloquence. Upon the whole, it was probably, the best lecture we so far have had this winter. Mr. B. is to lecture to-night, at Liberty Hall, for the Alexandria Christian Association. Subject-Humbugs.

GOOSE CREEK BRIDGE.-We anticipated events yesterday when we announced that the Loudoun and Hampshire railroad bridge, over Goose Creek, was in process of erection. The railroad bridge which is to span Goose Creek is being constructed at the lower ship yard in this city, and will as soon as completed be placed in position. By the time the bridge is erected the railroad track to Leesburg will have been thoroughly repaired, and it is confidently expected by the officers of the road that trains will be running to that town within the next sixty days.

THE NIGHT TRIPS TO WASHINGTON .- The Washington and Alexandria Ferry Company have had running for the last week a night boat between this city and Washington, which leaves Washington after the performance closes at the different places of amusement in that city. Last night the Colyer, which arrived here at a quarter before one o'clock, brought down a large number of ladies and gentlemen of this city, who had attended Ristori's representations at the National Theatre.

RAILROAD CONNECTION.—The convention of Railroad managers, lately assembled in ions, generally, are dull and drooping. Lynchburg, for the purpose of effecting arrangements by which to secure uninterrupted connection between New York and New Orleans, failed to arrive at any definite determination with regard to the matter under consideration, and adjourned to meet again in Washington, in which city they held a consultation to-day, the result of which, however has not transpired.

THE CITY HOTEL.—By reference to the notices of arrivals at the Hotels in this city, it note 53, and in demand. will be seen that the old City Hotel, which has recently been refurnished and re-opened by Mr. Robert J. Rainey, formerly of Washington, is receiving a fair share of public patronage. This Hotel in point of comfort and convenience will now compare favorably with any in the ample and its charges reasonable.

THE CASE OF THE WASHINGTON AND ALEX-ANDRIA RAILROAD.-The case of the Alexandria and Washington R. R. Company vs. the Washington, Alexandria and Georgetown Railroad Company, Jos. B. Stewart, et al., which occupied the attention of the Circuit Court Wednesday and Thursday, has been continued.

DIST, URBANCE IN "PETERSBURG."-The citizens residing in the Northern portion of the city were greatly annoyed last night by a pro longed disturbance which took place among a party of negro men and women, in the suburb known as "Petersburg." Cursing and swearing was carried on at a furious rate.

CORPORATION LAWS .- Wc are informed that much inconvenience is experienced by the officers of the Corporation as well as others interested in city affairs from the scarcity of copies of the Corporation Laws-it being almost impossible to obtain a copy any where in

CHANGE OF TIME TABLE.—By reference to the advertisement of the Loudoun and Hampshire Railroad, it will be seen that on and after Monday next, the 10th inst. the Leesburg train will leave the depot in this city at nine 8. m., instead of half past eight, as heretofore.

NATIONAL THEATRE.—Last night Ristori appeared as Elizabeth, Queen of England, in which impersonation she really excelled herself, in Shakespeare's play of that name.

MAGISTRATES' OFFICE.—Henry Shacklett, and another negro, who failed to give his name, were arrested yesterday evening, while engaged in trying to dispose of a lot of butter which it was supposed they had stolen, but as no proof of a theft having been committed could be obtained they were discharged.

WASHINGTON ITEMS. -Yesterday morning, Mr. George W. Brunner, a young man about twenty-five years of age, committed suicide in a fit of mental aberration, at his lodgings, by cutting his throat with a razor. The deceased for a few weeks past had been laboring under great nervous excitement. He was a young man of education and abilities, and had been for some time employed as a reporter for the Star newspaper.

> The funeral of the late James Welch, whose mysterious disappearance, while on a visit to Baltimore to attend the laying of the cornerstone of the new Masonic temple, has already been noticed, took place yesterday afternoon. A hydraulic feeder or reservoir used for supplying power to the hydrostatic printing by law, viz: distraint. presses in the Treasury Department, bursted and fell from its position on Tuesday evening, shaking the building and flooding the department in which it was erected. The weight of this exploded mass is about sixty tons, and it will cost probably $10,000 to repair the damages done.
